ENRICHMENT GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION

BOOZIOTIS BEST DESIGN AWARD

GUIDELINES

PURPOSE: The Booziotis Best Design Award will result annually in an art work to be displayed throughout the recipient's senior year at the Routh Street reception desk. The award is for $750 plus an additional amount of up to $250 for art materials. The award is intended to enrich the student's learning experience and support their artistic development.

ABOUT THE AWARD: This award is given by Bill Booziotis, Principal and President of Booziotis & Company Architects. Mr. Booziotis received his bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at Austin and his Masters of Architecture from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects. Mr. Booziotis has and continues to serve on a variety of boards, advisory councils, visiting committees and development boards for various arts and educational institutions. Booziotis & Company was the project architect for the renovation and new construction of BTWHSPVA.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA: The Award is open to juniors in the visual Arts cluster. The piece submitted must not exceed the following dimensions: Height 36", width 48", thickness 8", weight 40 lbs, installation shall utilize a minimum of two hangers. Acceptable media may include ceramics, wood or metal and the piece may include a small signature and date. Must be able to be hung on the wall behind the reception desk and not permanently affixed.

SELECTION AND AWARD PROCESS

- Students are asked to complete the online application, and submit with a sketch, model or digital image of the proposed design. The Student Enrichment Committee of The Advisory Board will select the recipient.
- $250 will be awarded to the student that is selected. The remaining $750 will be awarded to the student after the commissioned work has been completed and installed.
- Contact Paige Furr in the visual arts cluster to setup installation of the piece.
- The recipient will be required to send a thank you note and statement of how funds are to be used to both The Advisory Board and to Mr. Bill Booziotis.
